

2. In order to ensure smooth transition and to provide police officials and stakeholders a comprehensive guide on the new laws in regard with the old laws, NCRB has launched a Mobile App “NCRB Sankalan of Criminal Laws”. This App is compilation of new criminal laws namely Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita and Bharatiya Sakshya Abhiniam.

3. The desktop version of the App can be accessed from the links available on NCRB website (ncrb.gov.in) and MHA website (mha.gov.in). The App is also available on Google play store as well as Apple App Store. The App is designed to be a bridge between old and new laws. This App serves as a comprehensive guide, providing detailed comparisons between old and new legal provisions. The App is also designed to work in offline mode, ensuring that it is accessible in remote areas, making relevant information available to every stakeholder.

4. The App is structured into three main components, each serving a distinct purpose to enhance user experience and comprehension. The first component is the Index, where all chapters and sections of the laws are listed. Second, is a corresponding chart that provides visual representation of changes and highlights key differences between the two sets of laws with facility of text search for quick information retrieval. The user also has access to the detailed section-wise comparison between old and new laws, which will serve as a ready reference while implementation of the new laws. Third, component provides comprehensive content of the New Criminal Laws, along with the schedules with search facility. With its user-friendly design, comprehensive content, and innovative features, the app will empower users to learn the new laws effectively.
