Madam/Sir,

A 5-day Course on "Cyber Security for Leadership" scheduled to be held at the SVP National Police Academy, Hyderabad, from 04th to 08th May 2026, for the officers of the rank of Addl. Superintendent of Police and above. The course is designed as a non-technical, leadership-oriented programme focusing on strategic understanding, supervision, and decision-making aspects of cyber security for senior and supervisory officers. There will be limited hands-on components, with greater emphasis on functional understanding relevant to senior officers.

2. The objectives of the Training Programme is to cover the following aspects: -

- a. To enhance strategic understanding of the cyber threat landscape, emerging risks, and their impact on policing and national security.
- b. To equip officers with the knowledge to supervise and guide cyber security practices, including network, device, and data centre security.
- c. To build capacity for incident response, Security Operations Centres (SOC), and cyber resilience planning.
- d. To enable officers to interpret security audits, risk assessments, and vulnerability reports for informed decision-making.
- e. To strengthen leadership capability in planning, managing, and securing critical digital and police infrastructure.

3. It is requested to nominate four eligible officers rank of Addl. SP and above from each State/UT/CPOs/CAPFs to attend the Course as per the format given below: -
